ABOUT

Sargasso is located on the Harbour Arm in Margate, just steps away from the Turner Gallery with the train station just a short stroll. Our restaurant by the sea benefits from ample natural light during the day and a cosy warm atmosphere at night.

We work within the season and with an eager eye for provenance. We try to work as much as possible with local producers and suppliers, with fish and seafood coming from the day boat when Kevin the fisherman comes back with a fortunate haul. The food is honest and simple with a respect for tradition. Our wine list is small yet considered with a focus on low intervention, terroir driven wines.

While there is no venue hire charge, we kindly request a minimum spend on food & beverages. The venue is available for lunch or dinner Sunday to Thursday, and you will have dedicated members of our team looking after you.

We can accommodate sit down dinners of up to 24 guests and standing receptions of up to 35 guests. A pre-selected seasonal menu is available and can be designed with you and your guests in mind. A canapé menu for reception events usually includes approximately eight canapés. Menu prices start from £35.

The family-style menu offers a selection of sharing starters, a main course, followed by pudding and/or cheese. Menu prices from £55.

We are happy to cater for any/all dietary requirements with notice.

Enclosed, please find sample menus and supplemental information about the restaurant and private dining services.

Being 50 minutes outside of London on the high-speed train makes us the perfect spot for guests wanting to escape the city for the day. We are a short walk along the coast from Margate train station and for those travelling by car there is ample pay & display parking along the harbour arm.

ACCESSIBILITY

The restaurant is wheelchair accessible. The harbour arm toilets, which are the facilities for all businesses on the pier are open from 7:00 until 17:00. TOILETS

Our restaurant is a unique building on Margate's stone pier, often weathered by the ebb and flow of the North Sea. It is a wonderful space that can at times be challenging to keep open when impacted by prevailing weather conditions. For this reason, please be aware when you book with us we may occasionally have to cancel at short notice.

The harbour arm toilets, which are the facilities for all businesses on the pier are currently closed for refurbishment. During this time we have procured a dedicated prestige portaloo for Sargasso customer use. Unfortunately these toilets do not have disabled access.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause.
